Here are 10 important facts you need to know about loan insurance

1. There are 2 types of loan insurance coverage

- 1 In the event of death, life insurance will help repay all or part of the balance of your personal loan with mortgage security, thereby freeing your family from one of the many obligations that come with the passing of a loved one.
- 2 If you become unable to work or complete typical tasks for someone of your age due to an injury or illness, disability insurance can soften the blow of lost income by helping you make all or part of your monthly payments. The disability must last at least 60 days before benefits can be paid out.

You can sign up for life insurance only, or choose both coverages. It's up to you!

However, you must sign up for life insurance to be eligible for disability insurance.

You will find specific information for each protection in section 1 of the insurance certificate.

2. Loan insurance covers the insured balance or insured payment of your loan, in whole or in part

For life insurance, the insured balance is the balance of your loan as at the date of death, up to the maximum amount for the coverage ($1,000,000).

For disability insurance, the insured payment is the amount of your loan payment, up to the maximum amount of $5,000 per month.

› In the event of death, we pay the insured balance of the loan on the date of death.

› In the event of disability, we will cover the insured loan payment.

Maximum amount payable for each type of coverage

The amount payable for a claim cannot exceed the maximum for each type of coverage.

Life insurance	Disability insurance
$1,000,000	$5,000/month

If you are refinancing a loan and previous insurance coverage is recognized, the amount of insurance recognized will be the insured balance of the previous loan before the refinancing.

For example:

	Insured amount/payment at refinancing	After refinancing
Loan amount	$23,000	$35,000
Recognized life insurance amount	–	$23,000
Loan payment	$230	$370
Recognized disability insurance amount	–	$230

See sections 5, 6, 8 and 9 of the insurance certificate for more details on the amount we pay for each protection.

3. Loan insurance involves exclusions

We may refuse to pay a claim because of the exclusions set out in the insurance certificate.

Please review them immediately. We've summed them up here for you:

WARNING – Exclusions

We will not pay any benefits in the following situations:

Life insurance

- › Suicide within 2 years of the insurance start date.

Disability insurance

- › Cosmetic care;
- › Psychological or psychiatric disorders, chronic fatigue, depression, anxiety, stress or professional burnout (if you are not receiving therapy under the supervision of a medical specialist);
- › Back pain;
- › Pregnancy;
- › Alcoholism or addiction.

Concerning all protections

- › Pre-existing conditions: Have you consulted a physician, or been treated or hospitalized for a medical condition within the 12 months preceding the start date of your insurance? Note that the exclusion for a pre-existing condition will apply if death or a disability in relation to the condition occurs within the 12 months following the start date of your insurance;

- › Exclusion specific to the insured: further to an analysis of your insurance application and the answers you have provided, we may offer to insure you while excluding;
 - Certain medical conditions,
 - Events that could arise during travel abroad,
 - Any other condition deemed too high-risk;
- › War;
- › Active participation in a riot;
- › Use of narcotics without a prescription or of medication beyond the prescribed dosage;
- › Active participation in a flight of any device capable of lifting off and travelling in the air—including but not limited to airplanes, helicopters, hang gliders and hot-air balloons—, be it as a pilot, crew member, instructor or student;
- › Attempted suicide or voluntary self-harm.

Graphic example of a pre-existing condition clause

During this period, you consulted your physician for neck pain. He prescribed you anti-inflammatories.

12 months before
the insurance start date

Day 0
Insurance start date

During this period, you became disabled and stopped working because of your neck pain. No benefits will be payable for this disability.

12 months after
the insurance start date

The specific and more detailed exclusions concerning each protection as well as the general exclusions are described in section 12 of the insurance certificate.

4. You must meet certain criteria to be insured

To be eligible, you must, at the time of enrolment:

For life insurance:

- › Be 18 to 64 years old, inclusively;
- › Be living in Canada or the United States;
- › Be a borrower, co-borrower, guarantor or endorser of the insured loan.

For disability insurance:

- › Have signed up for life insurance; and
- › Be employed and have worked 60 hours or more within the last 4 weeks for compensation; or
- › If you are self-employed, you must have generated a gross income of at least $10,000 during the past fiscal year.

You may NOT apply for disability insurance on your loan if you:

- › Are on unemployment;
- › Are on a work stoppage;
- › Are jobless;
- › Receive income replacement payments (due to a disability, parental leave, work-related accident, etc.).

However, you can apply to add this type of coverage when you meet the eligibility criteria for indicated above.

Depending on your age and the amount of coverage requested, we will ask you some questions about your state of health and lifestyle.

 See section 2 of the insurance certificate for more information.

5. The insurance premium payable is fixed for the duration of your loan

The premium is the amount you pay in order to be insured.

As long as the terms and conditions of your loan do not change, your life insurance premium will remain the same.

However, your disability insurance premium may change if your payment amount is adjusted.

We reserve the right to amend our premium rate scales at any time. If we do so, the premiums charged to all our insureds will change.

Your premium rate is based on a number of factors, including:

- › The insured amount;
- › The age of the oldest insured person.

A discount is applied to your premium based on the number of insured persons.

The insurance taxes of your Canadian province of residence will also apply.

The insurance premium is collected on the first day of each month, in a separate transaction.

SAMPLE PREMIUM CALCULATION

Mathieu, 28 years old

Personal loan with mortgage security of $27,000

Monthly payment of $300

Insured life and disability

Age	Life	Disability
	Per $1,000 of initial amount insured of the loan $0 to $1,000,000	Per $10 of insured payment $0 to $5,000 per month
18-25	All 0.12	All 0.16
26-30	0.12	0.16
31-35	0.13	0.22
36-40	0.20	0.27

Life insurance premium calculation

(Insured amount/$1,000) X premium rate X taxes on insurance by province (Quebec 9%)
($27,000/$1,000) X 0.12 X 9% = $3.53

Calculating the premium - Disability insurance

(Insured amount/$10) X premium rate X taxes on insurance by province (Quebec 9%)
($300/$10) X 0.16 X 9% = $5.23

Total monthly premium: $3.53 + $5.23 = $8.76

Consult the insurance certificate for premium rates and nbc.ca for tax rates.

6. Duration of insurance

Start

The insurance starts on the later of the following dates:

- › The date the insurance application is signed; or
- › The date of the loan disbursement.

If you are required to provide proof of insurability, we will notify you in writing of our decision within 30 days of receiving the documents needed to analyze your insurance application.

End

Insurance generally remains in effect for the entire loan duration, unless you decide to terminate your coverage.

Other circumstances can also lead to termination of insurance, like refinancing, non-payment of premiums or when you reach the age of 70.

See section 13 of your insurance certificate for more information.

7. You'll have access to temporary accident coverage while we are studying your application

While we are analyzing your insurance application, you are covered for 120 days from the start of the payment of premiums in the event of accidental death, dismemberment or disability (depending on the coverage selected). Coverage is limited to 90 days if you have not submitted proof of insurability as requested.

See sections 1 and 3 of your certificate for the definition of an accident and details of temporary coverage in the event of an accident.

8. We can refuse a claim and cancel your insurance if you make a false declaration

You must always provide accurate information on your health status, lifestyle and any other information we deem necessary.

If, during a claim or at any other time during the insurance period, we receive information that differs from the information you initially provided, we could refuse your claim and retroactively cancel your insurance from its start date.

See sections 2 and 4 of your insurance certificate for more information.
